1. Background to the Promotion of Access to Information Act (PAIA) and Protection of Personal Information Act (POPIA).

- 1.1 The Promotion of Access to Information Act, No 2 of 2000 (the "Act") was enacted on the 3 February 2000, giving effect to the constitutional right in terms of section 32 of the Bill of Rights contained in the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa 108 of 1996 (the "Constitution") of access to any information held by the state and any information that is held by another person and that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights.
- 1.2 In terms of section 51 of the Act, all Private Bodies are required to compile an Information Manual ("PAIA Manual").
- 1.3 The Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013 was enacted on 26 November 2013 which sets out conditions for responsible parties to lawfully process the personal information of data subjects. This will entail the appointment of an Information Officer in terms of S55 who must develop a compliance framework for review of process and policies.
- 1.4 Where a request is made in terms of the Act the body to whom the request is made is obliged to release the information, subject to applicable legislative and/ or regulatory requirements, excepts where the Act expressly provides that the information may be withheld when requesting information from public or private body.

2 Busby Oils Natal (Pty) Ltd

- 2.1 Busby Oils Natal ("Busby Oils") are one of the leading producers of pharmaceutical grade eucalyptus oil in the world and we supply a number of large international flavour & fragrance houses. We also manufacture a range of personal care products under our B.O.N Label. These products are formulated to cater for the growing consumer trend towards NATURAL products, which have proven benefits.
- 2.2 This Manual (PAIA and POPIA) of Busby Oils is available at its premises: Greenhill, No 3A, D534, Hilton, 3245, as well as on its website, www.busbyoils.co.za, or provided when requested by any related parties.

3 Purpose of the PAIA/POPIA Manual

- 3.1 The purpose of PAIA is to promote the rights of access to information, to foster a culture of transparency and accountability within Busby Oils by giving the right to information that is required for the exercise or protection of any right and to actively promote a society in which the people of South Africa have effective access to information to enables them to exercise and protect their rights.
- 3.2 In order to promote effective governance of private bodies, it is necessary to ensure that everyone is empowered and educated to understand their rights in relation to public and private bodies.
- 3.3 Section 9 of the Act recognized that the right to access information cannot be unlimited and should be subject to justifiable limitations, including, but not limited to:
- 3.3.1 Limitations aimed at the reasonable protection of privacy,
 - 3.3.2 Commercial confidentiality, and
 - 3.3.3 Effective, efficient and good governance and in a manner which balances that right with any other rights, including such rights contained in the Bill of Rights in the Constitution.
- 3.4 The Manual complies with the requirements of the guide mentioned in section 10 of the of the Act and recognizes that upon commencement of the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013, that the appointed Information Regulator will be responsible to regulate compliance with the Act and its regulation by private and public bodies.

The Information Officer shall deliver a record, if possible and grant only access to that portion requested and which is not prohibited from being disclosed.

12 Refusal of Access to Records

12.1 Grounds to Refuse Access

A private body such as B.O.N is entitled to refuse a request for information. The main grounds for B.O.N to refuse a request for information relates to the:

- 12.1.1 Mandatory protection of the privacy of a third party who is a natural person or a deceased person (section 63) or a juristic person, as included in the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013, which would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information of that natural or juristic person;
- 12.1.2 Mandatory protection of personal information and for disclosure of any personal information to, in addition to any other legislative, regulatory or contractual agreements, comply with the provisions of the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013;
- 12.1.3 Mandatory protection of the commercial information of a third party (section 64) if the record contains:
 - i. Trade secrets of the third party;
 - ii. Financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of that third party;
 - iii. Information disclosed in confidence by a third party to B.O.N, if the disclosure could put that third party at a disadvantage in negotiation or commercial competition;
- 12.1.4 Mandatory protection of confidential information of third parties (section 65) if it is protected in terms of any agreement;

- 12.1.5 Mandatory protection of the safety of individuals and the protection of property (section 66);
- 12.1.6 Mandatory protection of records which would be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings (section 67).

12.2 The commercial activities (section 68) of a private body, such as B.O.N, which may include;

- 12.2.1 Trade secrets of B.O.N or of our customers / suppliers or other interested parties that willingly made information available to B.O.N under an NDA;
 - 12.2.2 Financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to financial or commercial interests of Busby Oils;
 - 12.2.3 Information which, if disclosed could put B.O.N at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
 - 12.2.4 A computer program which is owned by B.O.N, and which is protected by copyright;
 - 12.2.5 The research information (section 69) of B.O.N or a third party, if its disclosure would disclose the identity of B.O.N, the researcher or the subject matter of the research and would place the research at a serious disadvantage.
- 12.3 Requests for information that are clearly frivolous or vexatious or involve an unreasonable diversion of resources shall be refused.
- 12.4 All requests for information will be assessed on their own merits and in accordance with the applicable legal principle and legislation.
- 12.5 If a requested record cannot be found or if the record does not exist, the Information Officer shall, by way of an affidavit or affirmation, notify the requester that it is not possible to give access to the requested record. Such notice will be regarded as a decision to refuse a request for access to the record concerned for the purpose of the Act. If the record should later be found, the requester shall be given access to the record in the manner stipulated by the requester in the prescribed form, unless the Information Officer refuses access to such record.

13 Remedies Available When B.O.N Refuses a Request

13.1 Internal Remedies

13.1.1 B.O.N does not have internal appeal procedures. The decision made by the Information Officer is final. Requesters will have to exercise such external remedies at their disposal if the request for Information is refused, and the requestor is not satisfied with the answer supplied by the Information Officer.

13.2 External Remedies

13.2.1 A requestor that is dissatisfied with the Information Officer's refusal to disclose information, may with 30 (thirty) days of notification of the decision, apply to a Court for relief.

13.2.2 A third party dissatisfied with the Information Officer's decision to grant a request for information, may within 30 (thirty) days of notification of the decision, apply to a Court for relief. For purposes of the Act, the Court that have jurisdiction over these applications are the Constitutional Court, the High Court or another court of similar status and a Magistrate's Court designated by the Minister of Justice and Constitutional Development, and which is presided over by a designated Magistrate.

14 Access to Records Held by B.O.N

14.1 Prerequisites for Access by Personal/Other Requester

14.1.1 Records held by B.O.N may be accessed by requests only once the prerequisite requirements for access have been met.

14.1.2 A requester is any person making a request for access to a record of Busby Oils

There are two types of requesters:

a. Personal Requesters

- i. A Personal requester who is seeking access to a record containing personal information about the requester.
- ii. B.O.N will voluntarily provide the requested information or give access to any record with regard to the requester's personal information. The prescribed fee for reproduction of the information requested will be charged.

b. Other Requester

- i. This requester (other than a personal requester) is entitled to request access to information on third parties.
- ii. In considering such a request, B.O.N will adhere to the provisions of the Act. Section 71 requires that the Information Officer take all reasonable steps to inform a third party to whom the requested record relates of the request, informing him/her that he/she may make a written or oral representation to the Information Officer why the request should be refused or, where required, give written consent for the disclosure of the information.

B.O.N is not obliged to voluntarily grant access to such records. The requester must fulfil the prerequisite requirements, in accordance with the requirements of the Act and as stipulated in Chapter 5; Part 3, including the payment of a request and access fee (if applicable).

15 Prescribed Fees (Section 51 (1)(f))

15.1 Fees Provided by the Act

15.1.1 The Act provides for two types of fees, namely:

- a. A request fee, which is a form of administration fee to be paid by all requesters except personal requesters, before the request is considered and is not refundable; and
- b. An access fee which is paid by all requesters if a request for access is granted. This fee is inclusive of cost involved by the private body in obtaining and preparing a record for delivery to the requester.

15.1.2 When the request is received by the Information Officer, such officers shall by notice require the requester, other than a personal requester, to pay the prescribed request fee, before further processing of the request (section 54(1)).

15.1.3 If the search for the record has been made and the preparation of the record for disclosure, including arrangement to make it available in the requested form, requires more than the hours prescribed in the regulations for this purpose, the Information Officer shall notify the requester to pay as deposit the prescribed portion of the access fee would be payable if the request is granted.

- 15.1.4 The Information Officer shall withhold a record until the requester has paid the fees as indicated below.
- 15.1.5 A requester whose request for access to a record has been granted, must pay an access fee that is calculated to include, where applicable, the request fee, the process fee for reproduction and for the search and preparation, and for any time reasonably required in excess of the prescribed hours to search for and prepare the record for disclosure including making arrangements to make it available in the requested form.
- 15.1.6 If a deposit has been paid in respect of a request for access, which is refused, then the Information Officer concerned must repay the deposit to the requester.

16 Reproduction Fee

16.1 Where B.O.N has voluntarily provided the Minister with a list of categories of records that will automatically be made available to any person requesting access there to, the only charges that may be levied for obtaining such records, will be a fee for reproduction of the record in question.

16.4 Deposits

16.4.1 Where the institution receives request for access to information help on a person other than the requester himself/herself and the Information Officer upon receipt of the request is of the opinion that the preparation of the required record of disclosure will take more that 6 (six) hours, a deposit is payable by the requester.

16.4.2 The amount of the deposit is equal to 1/3 (one third) of the amount of the applicable access fee.

16.5 Collection Fees

- 16.5.1 The initial "requested fee" of R50,00 should be deposited into B.O.N bank account details of which will be provided and a copy of the deposit slip, application form and other correspondence / documents, forwarded to the Information Officer via email.
- 16.5.2 The officer will collect the initial "request fee" of application received directly by the Information Officer via email.
- 16.5.3 All fees are subject to change as allowed for in the Act and therefore such escalations may not always be immediately available at the time of the request being made. Requesters shall be informed of any changes in the fees prior to making a payment.

17 Decision

17.1 Time allowed:

- 17.1.1 B.O.N will, within 30 (thirty) days of receipt of the request, decide whether to grant or decline the request and give notice with reasons (if required) to that effect.
- 17.1.2 The 30 (thirty) day period within which B.O.N has to decide whether to grant or refuse the request, may be extended for a further period of not more than 30 (thirty) days in the request is for a large amount of information and the information cannot reasonably be obtained within the original 30 (thirty) day period.
- 17.1.3 B.O.N will notify the requester in writing should an extension be sought.

18 Protection of Personal Information that is Processed by B.O.N

- 18.1 Chapter 3 of POPIA provides for the minimum Conditions for Lawful Processing of Personal Information by a Responsible Party. These conditions may not be derogated from unless specific exclusions apply as outlined in POPIA.
- 18.2 B.O.N needs Personal Information relating to both individuals and juristic persons to carry its business and organisation functions. The way this information is processed and the purpose for which it is processed is determined by B.O.N. B.O.N is accordingly a Responsible Party for the purposes of POPIA and will ensure that the Personal Information of Data Subject:

- 18.2.1 Is processed lawfully, fairly and transparently. This includes the provision of appropriate information to Data Subjects when their data is collected by B.O.N, in the form of privacy or Data Subjects when their data is collected by Busby Oils must also have a legal basis (for examples, consent) to process Personal Information;
- 18.2.2 Is processed only for the purposes for which it was collected;
- 18.2.3 Will not be for a secondary purpose unless that processing is compatible with the original purpose.
- 18.2.4 Is adequate, relevant and not excessive for the purpose for which it was collected
- 18.2.5 Is accurate and kept up to date;
- 18.2.6 Will not be kept for longer than necessary;
- 18.2.7 Is processed in accordance with integrity and confidentiality principles; this includes physical and organisational measures to ensure that Personal Information, in both physical and electronic form, are subject to an appropriate level of security when stored, used and communicated by Busby Oils, in order to protect against access and acquisition by unauthorized persons and accidental, destruction or damage;
- 18.2.8 Is processed in accordance with the rights of Data Subjects, where applicable. Data Subjects have the right to:
 - a. Be notified that their Personal Information is being collected by Busby Oils. The Data Subject also has the rights to be notified in the event of data breach;

18.3 Purpose of the Processing of personal Information by the Company

As outlined above, Personal Information may only be processed for a specific purpose. The purposes for which B.O.N processes or will process Personal Information is set out in Part 1 of Appendix 2.

18.4 Categories of Data Subjects and Personal Information/special Personal Information relating thereto

As per section 1 POPIA, a Data Subject may either be a natural or a juristic person. Part 2 of Appendix 2 sets out the various categories of Data Subjects that B.O.N Processes Personal Information on and the types of personal Information relating thereto.

18.5 Recipients of Personal Information

Part 3 of Appendix 2 outlines the receipts to whom B.O.N may provide a Data Subjects Personal Information to.

18.6 Cross-border flows of Personal Information

- 18.6.1 Section 72 of POPIA provides that Personal Information may only be transferred out of the Republic of South Africa if the;
- a. Recipient country can offer such data an "adequate level" of protection. This means that its data privacy laws must be substantially similar to the Conditions for Lawful Processing as contained in POPIA; or
 - b. Data Subject consents to the transfer of their Personal Information; or
 - c. Transfer is necessary for the performance of a contractual obligation between the Data Subject and the Responsible Party; or

- d. Transfer is necessary for the performance of a contractual obligation between the Responsible Party and the third party, in the interests of the Data Subject; or
- e. The transfer is for the benefits of the Data Subject, and if it were, the Data Subject, would in all likelihood provide such consent.

18.6.2 Part 4 of Appendix 2 sets out the planned cross-border transfers of Personal Information and the condition form above that applies thereto.

18.7 Objection to the Processing of Personal Information by a Data Subject

Part 5 of Appendix 2 sets out the types of security measure to be implemented by Busby Oils in order to ensure that Personal Information is respected and protected. A preliminary assessment of the suitability of the information security measure implemented or to be implemented by Busby Oils may be conducted in order to ensure that the Personal Information that is processed by Busby Oils is safeguarded and processed in accordance with the Conditions for lawful Processing.

18.8 Description of Information security measures to be implemented by Busby Oils
